

prize animals were read the following:
A letter was read from the Royal Society of Edinburgh, stating it is proposed to hold the Napier tercentenary celebration in Edinburgh in July, 1914, and asking the Society to appoint a delegate to attend the celebration. Prof. A. W. Conway, M.A., D.Sc., was appointed to represent the Society on the occasion.

A letter was read from the Civic Exhibition, 1914. Sir Joseph M'Grath and Professor M'Weeney were appointed to make inquiries with reference to the proposed Exhibition, and to report to the Council.

Letters were also read from Mercer's Hospital, Lawes' Agricultural Trust, Classical Association of Ireland, Brigade Major 13th Infantry Brigade.